

Follow us!

World Pasta Day is celebrated annually on October 25th.

This is a day for carb lovers to rejoice and celebrate their love for pasta.

It is a very versatile food as it comes in many shapes and sizes and can be served hot or cold, as a main dish, side dish or salad. World Pasta Day promotes the health benefits and pure pleasure of eating pasta, in every shape and form. Found on every continent, pasta is an essential part of numerous traditional diets, but most famously, the Mediterranean Diet. The annual celebration is not only about noodles and pasta but also about the consumers of pasta. And who don't love eat this special food?

Come to Italy and enjoy a big plate of spaghetti alla Bolognese!

Trust us with your event, and you will not regret it!

Get in touch

